

842 AD NAMES TO LIST OF QUALIFIED WOMEN VOTERS

Total of Fair Sex Eligible to Participate in November Election Reaches 8,795.

EXPECT—42,000 TO REGISTER

Charge Is Made That Thousands Are Illegally on Polling Books—Seek Opinion From the Attorney-General.

Feminine registration scored a new high record yesterday. With two hours added to the time heretofore allotted, the registrars enrolled 842 new names to the list of qualified women voters. The number 157 were colored. Mrs. Frank L. Johnson registered even 100 white women and Mrs. Carter W. Wesley 25. The grand total of registered women voters in Richmond mounted yesterday to 8,795.

The most sanguine forecasts of the day's enrollment did not exceed 700 and the result was a surprise to the registrars. The registrars have been busy keeping the lines of applicants under close observation. There is every reason to believe that with fair weather, the enrollment of women today will approximate 800 and that the total for the day will be 9,500.

The closing hour for the registrars yesterday was extended to 5 o'clock as a result of a request made by Miss Adele Clark and Miss Nora Houston, representing the Virginia League of Women Voters. The registrars will again be kept open today until 5 P. M.

At about noon yesterday Secretary John L. Ingram, of the City Electoral Board, wandered into the basement of the City Hall. Garland Taylor was registering the colored women. "The line is thinning out," Mr. Ingram remarked to Ora Stokes, one of the leaders of the colored women's organizations. "I guess there's nothing more to turn away when the closing time comes."

Negroes Await Call. "There's more to come," the colored woman replied. "I've got them lined up in Jackson Ward waiting for the word. They are ready to come when I call them." Then she explained: At several points in the old Jackson Ward, colored women have been assembled each day, waiting for information by telephone from their leaders in the City Hall. The colored women prefer to wait in these places near their homes to standing in the long lines at the City Hall.

Joseph R. Pollard, leader of the "Lily Black" wing of the Republican Party, said that about 5,000 women are affiliated with his political organization. They will apply for registration today and tomorrow. Democratic leaders Davis and C. C. Carey also get his tremendous following on polling books, his wing of the Republican Party. The latter wing, however, was recognized as the "Lily White" party. When the question was before the National Republican Committee at the time of the Chicago convention.

Officers of the Electoral Board said last night that they had begun to prepare a list of the thirty-one registrars and where they will sit, because there have been some changes in the locations and in the personnel of the registrars since the last election was held in the city. The list may be completed and given out for publication today.

Improperly Registered in Third. Many women have been improperly registered in copies of the Third District, according to Captain W. D. Cardwell, chairman of the Third District Democratic Committee. He called the attention of the Attorney-General and Secretary of the Commonwealth to the matter. Captain Cardwell says that at one precinct in Hanover County more than 120 women are improperly registered, and they will have to apply again for registration.

Registration. He explains that the law, they permitted with the law to fill in and sign the blank form and then enrolled the women as voters. The law requires the application to be made by the registrars and without assistance from any one. Captain Cardwell says that thousands of the women are illegally on the polling books because they did not conform with the law's requirements of the registrars. However, to have the women's registration annulled, The Attorney-General probably will give an opinion next few days.

Complaints have come to the headquarters of the Virginia League of Women Voters, formerly the League of Suffrage League, from Hanover. The pointed registrars, the regularly refused to register women as voters and resigned their posts. Interested citizens of the county are preparing to lay the case before Judge R. C. Smith, of the Henrico Circuit Court. W. B. Braxton, Jr., and Cassie to their posts, registering women on Wednesday last, Saturdays of each week. C. W. Hall, registrar at the Shop, Hanover County, refused to register Miss Lucy Talley Wednesday, giving as the reason that he had received no official communication from any source advising him of the ratification of the nineteenth amendment and its effect.

Determine Women's Eligibility. Whether women shall be admitted to membership in the Civil Association of Richmond is to be determined by the association at a meeting to be held in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce next Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock. An amendment to the constitution permitting the entry of women will be offered at that meeting.

Superintendent of City Schools A. H. Hill has authorized the principal of Blinford Junior high school to schedule a course of four lessons for newly enfranchised voters to be held October 8, 15, 22 and 29. It is designed as a "course in citizenship."

Women. The Richmond are urged to pay their poll taxes today and to register with the precinct registrars. Payment of poll taxes or registration for the November elections will not be permitted after sundown tomorrow. Poll taxes can be paid at the South Richmond branch of the Bank of Commerce and Trusts, Tenth and Hull Streets. Registrars for the various precincts are: Precinct 1, H. A. H. The case of Lou Betts, known to the gambling fraternity of the world as being the "Southern Colonel," who was being held in the City Jail on a charge of kidnapping, was given a hearing today by Governor Davis in the Supreme Court.

Betts was scheduled to be given a hearing yesterday, but the Governor was still out of the city, and it was postponed until today.

Betts, who is one of the best known gamblers in the South, and whose reputation for running one of the highest class of games, is equalled only by that of the notorious Richard Cardfield, is wanted in New York on a charge of being a common gambler.
